President's Corner

Dear Brothers,

Thank you for contributing to a very successful 2013 for our Lodge. Duca Degli Abruzzi #443 was bustling with activity from its many lodge events which included the 28 week Friday lunch program, the annual wine tasting party, the fish, the deer, and the rabbit parties, Gusto, the newly created Cans-n-Clams program, the summer Friday night BBQ series, the Columbus Day dinner dance with NYS Grand Lodge OSIA President Joe Rondinelli in attendance, the pig roast, our renewed Clambake under the tent, the well attended deceased members mass, the lodge's pasta dinner, and ending with the annual Kid's Christmas party. Again, thanks to all the brothers who volunteered their time to make all these events a success.

Fraternally yours,
David De Angelo – President

January 2014

Dear Sisters,

Happy New Year! I hope your holidays were filled with joy! As we start our new year we have a couple of things to look forward to, the Card Party in March and our Scholarship & Retirement Dinner Dance in April. More events and details will be coming soon!

Looking back at the past year we have had a lot of successes, the Ice Cream Social, Gusto, Casino Night and Cook Nights, to name a few. Thank you to all the members who made them a success. It takes a lot of work and many hands to make it all happen. New ideas are always welcome.

As we reminisce about the past, good and the not so good, let's remember we are all in this together and we do the best we can in hopes of good things to come.

As we plan for the future, let us remember those less fortunate than us and plan on helping out at our functions by either being on the committee, supporting monetarily or attending the events. We can't all do everything, but we can all do a little something to make our charitable giving possible. We can accomplish anything when we work together!

If you have any ideas for our meetings to make them more interesting and fun let me know, I am trying my best to keep our business portion of the meeting to an hour when possible and have some time to socialize after the meeting. I heard someone talk about teaching Line Dancing before the meeting, and possibly an "elders talk" before the meeting to reminisce about the old days here and in Italy, wouldn't those stories be interesting! We could share old pictures and a little about our history, it was so interesting to see and read the ornaments on our Christmas tree at the Endicott Center, it made me yearn for more! Call me let's put our heads together and make it fun!

God Bless each and every one of you in the New Year!

Fraternally,
Sue Bock – President
Daughters of Columbus Lodge 1666

One Man's Opinion

Lou Buiocchi

Another year has gone by, and I got a year older. Isn't it great when you can get up everyday and say, "What a great feeling." I thought what I would do for the past year is to rate my personal life and a few other things.

My rating system is from 0 to 10 with ten being the best and Zero is the worst possible case.

I have been blessed in my 80 years with a successful marriage, I think, for 56 years, have three wonderful kids, most of the time, who gave me seven grand children, if I had know they would be so much fun, I would have tried to have them first, and finally two great grand kids, who can't understand why I can't get on the floor any more to play "Horsy". Is my life perfect, "No", I have problems no more or no less, then all of you, but I don't think I would swap many of my problems for anybody else's problems? They say, "If God gave us all a chance to throw our problems into one big pile, with everybody else's problems and we could choose any one we wanted, we would pick out the one's we threw in. So with all that in mind, my rating for my personal life in 2013 is 9.5.

My next rating is for our U.S. Government. I think that these people in office have forgotten why they were elected, to serve us, a government of the people and by the people. The shut down was terrible, service men not being able to be buried, all our national parks closed, federal employees who protect our country not being paid but forced to work because of the security of our nation.

Grown Men and Women supposedly working for us, can't sit down, discuss the problems, give and take a little and then do what is best for the country, regardless of political background. If I were younger I would run for office on one platform only, IF ELECTED I WOULD SUBMIT A BILL THAT EVERY ELECTED POLITICIAN COULD ONLY SERVE TWO FOUR YEAR TERMS AND NEVER BE ALLOWED TO RUN AGAIN FOR ANY OFFICE. My ranking of the people running our government is "ZERO".

My next ranking is for all our men and women who serving in our armed forces, who protect us day and night 24/7. They do a fantastic job under adverse conditions; I salute all of you in the Military, where ever you are stationed. All of you are ranked a "10" plus, for the fine job you do.

My last ranking is for all the people out there who think I'm not politically correct. I will still say it is a Christmas Tree, not a Holiday Tree, I still will wish you a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year, rather than say "Happy Holidays". I still believe Christmas is the birth date of Baby Jesus and I will still honor Him by putting up the manger, rather than removing it so I don't hurt anybody's feelings... To all of you who think I'm not politically correct, I say "Bah Humbug" and your ranking is very low. To the rest of you, my family and I wish you all a Very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. For 2014 we wish you Health, Happiness and we hope there is Peace on earth, Good will amongst all men and women through this great world of ours.

Have a great Christmas!
Lou

One Man's Opinion Too

Like most of you, I subscribe to a Cable TV Company, where I can get every TV Show in the world (almost). No kidding, my range of channels run from channel # 1 to Channel # 1999. You would think with all these channels I could find something besides Baseball games to occupy my time. Watching shows like, "House Hunters", "Cake Boss", "New Girl – Virginity Stories", (no kidding), "Reality Shows" and "Survivor", I had enough. I had to find something to occupy my time, worth while. Then I found an old friend. Let me explain:

While waiting for my wife in her Doctor's office, I noticed a large book called "Reader's Digest". The "Reader's Digest" that I knew was a small book with great articles which I use to read when I was in the U.S. Navy. This large book had large print for seniors and it was like I discovered a long lost friend again. I started to read "Humor in Uniform", "Life in these United States" and "Quotable Quotes from Famous People. I found these to be very interesting and because they are true statements, I would like to share some of them with you.

1. Lillian Carter (Mother of President Jimmy Carter): Sometimes, when I look ay my children, I say to my self," Lillian", you should have remained a virgin.

2. Eleanor Roosevelt: I had a rose named after me and I was very flattered. But I was not pleased to read the description in the catalogue, - "No good in a bed, but fine against a wall.
3. Mark Twain: Last week, I stated this woman was the ugliest woman I had ever seen. I have since been visited by her sister, and now wish to with draw that statement.
4. George Burns: The secret of a good sermon is to have a good beginning and a good ending; and to have the two as close together as possible.
5. Victor Borge: Santa Claus has the right idea. Visit people only once a year.
6. Socrates: By all means, marry. If you get a good wife, you'll become happy; if you get a bad wife, you'll become a philosopher.
7. Groucho Marx: I was married by a judge. I should have asked for a jury,
8. Jimmy Durante: My wife has a slight impediment in her speech. Every now and then she stops to breathe.
9. Zsa Zsa Gabor: I have never hated a man enough to give his diamonds back.
10. Alex Levine: Only Irish coffee provides in a single glass all four essentials food groups: alcohol, caffeine, sugar and fat.
11. Rodney Dangerfield: My luck is so bad that if I bought a cemetery, people would stop dying.
12. Spike Milligan: Money can't buy you happiness... But it does bring you a more pleasant form of misery.
13. Joe Namath: Until I was thirteen, I thought my name was "SHUT UP".
14. Bob Hope: I don't feel old. I don't feel anything until noon. Then it's time for my nap.
15. Will Rogers: We could certainly slow the aging process down if it had to work its way through Congress.
16. Winston Churchill: Don't worry about avoiding temptation. As you grow older, it will avoid you.
17. Phyllis Diller: Maybe it's true that life begins at 50... But everything else starts to wear out, fall out or spread out.
18. Billy Crystal: By the time a man is wise enough to watch his step, he's too old to go anywhere.
19. My Cardiologist put me on this diet: If it tastes good, spit it out.

To all of you: May your troubles be less, may your blessings be more and may nothing but happiness come through your door.

My family and I wish you all a very Happy New Year and wish you Health, Peace and Good Will amongst all men, and a wonderful 2014.

Lou

A Special Thank You

To Italo Roma and Lucien Ancillotti for all their tireless cooking to make our Funeral Luncheons possible. We couldn't have done this effort without you two. We appreciate your efforts.

Military Luncheon — Friday, Jan. 17, 2014

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Once again, our Friday lunch program is in full swing. At this time, I would like to thank each and everyone who comes in for a great meal to support the Lodge.

On Jan. 17th, 2014, we once again will be having our military lunch for currently active military personnel. Our guest chefs are Cosimo Delsanto and Italo Roma and the crew of Lucien Ancillotti and Chuck Hoffman. The meal will be Veal Parmesan and Pasta. So I hope you stop by to support this effort and have a great lunch and to say "Thanks" to our military personnel.

I hope everyone has a wonderful holiday and hope to see you come Jan. 17th so take care and God bless.

Respectfully Submitted,
Richard (Dick) Ferrara

2013 Clambake

"Thank You!"

Another successful clambake was held on Saturday, September 14, under the tents. Unlike the 2012 Clambake, we were blessed this year with no high winds, no heavy rains and more moderate temperatures. Special thanks go out to Brothers Tom "Whale" Marino, Ron Rotella, Mike Ciotoli, George Thrasher, Leo McMahon, Bob Daglio, Bob Ollerenshaw, Harlan "Harpo" Ayers, Mark Hanafin, Benny DiLorenzo, Bob Arnold, Paul Hart, Al Capadaglio, Carmelo Pelletteri, Tony Pompeii, Bob Ciotoli, Bob Longo, Benny Loy, Duke Smolinsky, Joe and Barb Dessel, Dave DeAngelo, Ralph Mancini, Lou Benett, Tony Rose, Jerry Lenzo, Bill Testani, and Steve Rogers. Thank you to Bru Fernan from the Binghamton Abruzzi lodge for also volunteering his time and help. The Lodge would also like to recognize 1) Bob Grannis for the use of his tents for the second year, not only for the clambake but for the BBQ Series as well, 2) John Sbarra for the use of the tables, chairs and hose and 3) Gene Roma Jr. for the use of his new box truck and the use of his commercial clam steamer.

From all the 30 + volunteers who helped with this clambake, this is just evidence that everything is alive and well at Duca Degli Abruzzi Lodge 443. Hope to see you all next year in 2014.

Respectfully submitted,
Gene Drobny
